Deepspawn_Logic Returns with "Don't Fall From The Sky," the Third Single from the Upcoming Debut Spoken Word Album She Me Her

Release Date: August 14, 2026

New Jersey — Following the releases of "You've Got a Way" and "Honey Hush," spoken word artist Deepspawn_Logic unveils her third single, "Don't Fall From The Sky," arriving on all major streaming platforms on August 14, 2026.

More than a spoken word performance, "Don't Fall From The Sky" is a meditation on resilience, identity, and the discipline required to remain true to yourself after you've fought to become who you are. Rather than celebrating the climb, the piece explores the quieter challenge that follows: protecting your growth, your peace, and your purpose in a world that often rewards shrinking.

Built on vivid imagery and reflective storytelling, the performance reminds listeners that doubt, isolation, and silence are not signs of failure they are often the companions of transformation. With lines that encourage strength without spectacle and confidence without apology, the piece speaks to anyone learning to stand firmly in the life they've worked to build.

"Don't Fall From The Sky" continues the emotional and artistic journey of She Me Her, Deepspawn_Logic's forthcoming debut spoken word album. Each release reveals a different dimension of womanhood, healing, self-discovery, and personal evolution, inviting listeners into stories that are both deeply personal and universally recognizable.

Known for blending poetic storytelling with soulful musical landscapes, Deepspawn_Logic creates work that lives between spoken word, alternative R&B, and contemporary soul. Her performances are intimate yet cinematic, balancing vulnerability with quiet power while encouraging listeners to find pieces of themselves within every verse.

"Don't Fall From The Sky" will be available worldwide on August 14, 2026, on all major digital streaming platforms.
